And the Paper Proves It.

You have only to see Pittsburgh Wall Paper to realize that the leading artists of the world conceived and executed these beautiful and decorative ideas. No other line of wall decorations have the uniform excellence of design and color effects. Every pattern is a beautiful work of art. Yet not too fine nor delicate for practical use. No matter what the quality, the same amount of judicious artistic sense has been exercised. The desired effect has always been attained—beauty and utility. Pittsburgh Wall Papers are sold in Reynoldsville only by H. ALEX STOKES.

Mr. Thompson was one of Uncle Sam's loyal soldier boys. He has also been a loyal soldier in the army of the Lord for 68 years. He has now passed the 80th mile stone in life's journey and looks robust enough to live to be a hundred years old.

LABOR DAY OBSERVED.

Large Crowd in Town—Big Parade—Speeches in Centennial Hall.

On account of the unfavorable weather Labor Day was not observed in Reynoldsville as was intended, however, there was a large crowd in town. The wet condition of the grove made it necessary to declare the picnic off entirely. The Keystone band was out on the streets in the forenoon and there was a game of ball between the Never Sweats and True Blues on the ball grounds, but that was the only attraction in the forenoon. At 2:00 p. m. there was a parade, headed by the Keystone band. There were a large number of men, ladies, girls and boys in the parade. Representatives of the following trades were in the parade: Retail clerks, textile workers, stone masons, miners, glass workers, carpenters, painters and paper hangers, and barbers—8 trades represented.

After the parade a meeting was held in Centennial hall. Dr. J. W. Faust was elected chairman of the meeting. The following gentlemen addressed the assemblage: Thomas Haggerty, George Harris, of this place, Richard Gilbert, of Clearfield, secretary and treasurer of District No. 2 of U. M. Death From Consumption.

Claude A. Schugers, aged about 28 years, a highly respected young man of Hornstown, son of Mrs. Matilda Schugers, died at 10:10 p. m. Monday, Sept. 2, 1901, from consumption. Two years ago Claude was a large, robust young man, with fair indications of a long life. Last fall it was plainly visible to his friends that consumption was fastening its grip upon him, and he went south to spend the winter. The southern climate did not restore him to health. He gradually grew worse, although everything possible was done to cure him. Funeral services will be held at the Chestnut Grove church at 2:00 p. m. to-day, conducted by Rev. John Waite and the body will be buried in the Smith cemetery beside the father, Frank Schugers, who died eleven years ago from consumption. Claude was a member of the Lutheran church.

House Struck by Lightning.

During the storm Sunday afternoon one of the company houses at Soldier was struck by lightning and considerably damaged. Mr. and Mrs. William Barker, who occupy one side of the house, were knocked unconscious. Mr. Barker had not fully recovered yesterday from the shock. Harry McElwaine and family, who occupied the other half of house, were away from home at the time, or it might have been more serious with them than it was with Mr. and Mrs. Barker, as there was more damage done to McElwaine's side of the house than there was to Barker's side.

Want an Increase in Pay.

The employes of the silk mill at this place have made a demand for an increase of price on work, and while a strike has not been declared, the employes are not working to-day. Elsewhere in this issue will be found a proposition from the Enterprise Silk Co.

Killed by Fall.

J. R. Groves, a farmer who resided in Beechwoods, within about two miles of Sandy Valley, fell from the roof of his barn about ten o'clock Friday forenoon and sustained internal injuries which caused his death about four o'clock that afternoon. Mr. Groves was a man over 60 years old. He had resided in Beechwoods from the time when he was a small lad. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon and interment was made in Beechwoods cemetery.

Had Small-Pox.

Will Scott and Frank Smith, two young men of Reynoldsville who are traveling with the Norris & Row Pony and Dog Show, as members of the band, were both in a hospital at St. Paul, Minn., with small-pox. K. G. E. REUNION.

Mt. Cliff Castle, of Reynoldsville, Won First Prize—Reunion at this Place Next Year.

The 11th annual reunion of the Northwestern Reunion Association, Knights of Golden Eagle, was held in DuBois last Thursday. Mountain Cliff Castle and Pleasant Valley Temple, of this place, accompanied by the Keystone band, attended the reunion. Mountain Cliff Castle won first prize for best appearance of men in parade and Pleasant Valley Temple won the prize for best appearance of ladies in parade. The prizes were awarded as follows: 1st to Mountain Cliff Castle, Reynoldsville, $40; 2nd to Echo Castle, Beechtree, $20; 3rd to Jefferson Castle, Delaney, sword and belt; and Pleasant Valley Temple, Reynoldsville, was awarded the prize for best appearance, $10.

At the business meeting held in the evening the following district officers, all of Reynoldsville, were elected for the ensuing year: President, Edwin Hoare; vice-president, Albert Neale; secretary, T. J. White; treasurer, J. G. Musser. Reynoldsville was selected as the place for holding the reunion on the last Thursday in August, 1902.

A Trip to Punxs'.

A large number of our people attended the Punxsutawney fair Thursday, but the Reynoldsville delegation was small to what it would have been had the railroad company run excursion trains from this place. All the rigs that could be hired were used Thursday for the fair. Had it not been for the kindness of H. Alex Stokes, ye editor would have been among the number that were compelled to stay at home because they could not get conveyances to take them to the fair. We drove to Anita, took dinner at Hotel McGregor and went from Anita to Punxsutawney on the electric cars. The car we were on only jumped off the track twice going to Punxsutawney and twice returning to Anita, but that seems to be a common occurrence on that line. One trip Thursday forenoon a car jumped off the track seven times. It's a "dandy" road, plenty of excitement when there are strangers on the cars, but the denizens along the line are accustomed to that kind of experience. This is the line that there is talk of being extended to Eleanora. It is a swift one, sure. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deltz, of this place, who were driving in a buggy, had to wait at a street crossing in Punxs' until our car passed and they were at Anita before we got there. There was a large crowd at the fair. It was claimed by the Punxs'ites that there were 20,000 people on the ground Thursday afternoon, but we think 11,000 would be nearer the correct number. The fair compared favorably with the county fairs. Horse racing and gambling were the main features of the fair. In the section of the grand stand we occupied the ladies did as much betting as the men.

Game of Ball Labor Day.

An interesting and warmly contested game of ball was played on the grounds at this place Monday forenoon by home talent, Never Sweats and True Blues. H. Deter and J. Northey did the battery work for True Blues and R. Robertson and J. King did the fancy work for Never Sweats. The score was 9-10 in favor of True Blues. The line up was as follows:

- Never Sweats: R. Robertson, c; King, p; V. Shaw, m; R. Frazer, 1b; C. Deter, 2b; F. Hover, lf; F. Wiley, rf; E. Heckman, mf; E. Hover, lf. True Blues: E. McEntire, 3b; W. Northey, lf; H. Barry, m; W. Fortune, rf; H. Deter, c; J. Northey, p; G. White, ss; M. Plyler, 1b; A. Tyson, 2b.

Musical Convention.

The musical convention held in Centennial hall two weeks, under the direction of Prof. S. G. Smith, of Columbus, Ohio, closed Friday evening with an excellent vocal and instrumental entertainment, that was highly appreciated by the audience, which, by the way, was not as large as it should have been, considering the low price of admission and the high class of entertainment given. The program consisted of duets, solos, anthems, choruses, glees, etc., interspersed with piano, mandolin and guitar duets. Miss Margaret Rudolph, of Big Run, who is a graduate of Prof. Smith's school of music at Columbus, Ohio, was present and sang four or five solos. She has a sweet voice, is a good singer and easily captivated the audience.

Prof. Smith is a first-class instructor, and those who attended the convention were well satisfied with the instruction they received from him.
